The text of President Coleman's remarks follow.

Good morning!

Welcome to the second regular session of the 75th General Assembly. It is my honor to be with you all this morning to celebrate the beginning of another legislative session.

I'd like to begin by welcoming our guests this morning. So many family and friends, former lawmakers – basically everyone who doesn't have to be here when our debates stretch into the night or, god forbid, the weekend.

They aren't here in the chamber today, but I want to acknowledge my family as well. They are my rock, and I would not be here today without them.

Shayna – my wife, and partner of 25 years, thank you for being there to celebrate my successes, for lifting me up on the more challenging days, and for taking on every day together in partnership.

Naomi and James – one of the main reasons I do this work is for you. To help build a future where every door is open and every opportunity is waiting for you. My first opening day, you were both small enough to sit on my lap. Flash forward ten years, you're behind the wheel of a car. I am so proud of both of you and every day you make me grateful to be your dad.

I would like us all to extend thanks to all our nonpartisan staff, who have seen some changes since we were here this summer for our special session. Join me in welcoming our new members of the Senate team, and members taking on new roles on the team:

Olivia Hart, Mary Ann Admire, Matthew Rivera, Benjamin Noren, Dennis Pinto, and Jerry Touslee.

Welcome to the Senate, we're so happy to have you join the family. And thank you to the returning staff – I'm grateful to work alongside you another year.

If you know me, you know that I don't do any of this alone. I'd like to thank our Senate leadership team – Majority Leader Rodriguez, President Pro Tempore Michaelson Jenet, Assistant Majority Leader Cutter, Caucus Chair Roberts, and our whip, Senator Hinrichsen – for their help in keeping this train on the tracks.

I also can't do this without the greatest Minority Leader this chamber has ever seen, Alamosa's own, Senator Cleave Simpson. It's an honor to lead alongside you.

We must also give a warm welcome to the newest member of the upper chamber: Senator William Lindstedt! Just wait until you see how efficient we are over here.

I'm just kidding though, of course we love our friends in the House. And I'd be remiss if I didn't wish the good Speaker McCluskie well in her final session in the House.

Her work to invest in Colorado's future will be transformative. Whether through implementation of a new school funding formula that ensures resources are going directly to students that need them most, her dedication to protecting Colorado's water future, and her hand in ensuring access to affordable health care for all – it has been an honor to learn from her and lead alongside her, and I will miss her partnership.

Speaker, don't forget about us on the other side, and please don't be a stranger!

And to Governor Polis, who is also entering his final year as the leader of our state. It's been a privilege to work with you in this leadership capacity and I look forward to all that we'll accomplish together this year. I can't wait to hear your final – and I'm sure best – State of the State tomorrow. Last year I learned that my assigned seat is fully in view on the Colorado Channel. I've been practicing my facial expressions and reactions all week. I'm ready!

Colleagues, we have been through a lot together over the past year. We have fiercely debated policies with one another, we have deliberated on Colorado's toughest issues, we have celebrated wins.

And, colleagues, we have grieved together.

We continue to mourn the unexpected, tragic loss of one of our own: Senator Faith Winter.

Faith's loss is immeasurable, and as we embark on our work this session I hope that we can incorporate her tenacity and the joy that she found in this work into our policies, as well as in the conversations we have with one another.

Because Faith never forgot to be moved by the people behind her policies. She never forgot how to be human in this work – flaws and all.

She would work with anyone who would work with her. A coalition and team builder for the ages, she would not let the letter after someone's name, a district number, or the county they call home get in the way of getting good policy over the finish line.

Policy that puts Coloradans, and Colorado, first.

We will miss her presence in our chamber each and every day. She showed up with a warmth and brightness reflected in the clothing she wore, the fresh flowers on her desk, and, most of all, in her smile and friendly hello.

May we honor Faith not only in memory, but in how we show up for the work and for one another.

Colleagues, we have accomplished so much together.

In just the last year, we stepped up to protect safety net providers through legislation sponsored by Senators Mullica and Kirkmeyer to ensure Coloradans everywhere from Craig, Cortez, to Crowley are able to receive the health care they need.

We set Colorado kids up for greater prosperity by increasing school funding through last year's School Finance Act and creation of the Kids Matter Fund, thanks to Senators Bridges and Kolker.

We made Colorado a national leader in reproductive rights and we have stood up for a woman's right to determine her own future, most recently through passage of legislation like Senators Gonzales and Weissman's Emergency Medical Treatment and Labor Act and Senators Daugherty and Rodriguez's legislation to implement the will of the voters and guarantee coverage for abortion care to Coloradans on Medicaid.

Over the interim, I had the privilege of visiting every member in their district all across the state:

Senator Rich was kind enough to drive me through District 7 to see the beauty of the Colorado National Monument and understand the vitality of the Western Slope;
I traveled up to District 17 to visit Senator Wallace and catch up over a beer at Oskar

Blues;
In District 10, Senator Liston and I toured UCCS and learned about their state-of-the-art cybersecurity systems;
And I joined Senator Roberts at a town hall in District 8 and got to visit Strawberry Hot Springs.

Not to mention that Minority Leader Simpson and I got to check out some of the coolest cars I've ever seen at a car show in Alamosa.

At each of these visits we reflected on our progress and talked about the challenges still facing Coloradans. Colleagues, I'm here to tell you that we are not as divided as some might want you to believe.

Coloradans need a safe place to live, they need to be able to go to the doctor without driving for miles or paying a fortune, they need to be able to afford gas, groceries, and childcare. They need clean drinking water and enough water to work the land and grow livestock and crops. And they need us to stand up for their rights and protect their liberties.

To accomplish these goals, we must be courageous leaders and lawmakers.

Because we are facing headwinds and will have to confront serious challenges.

Our budget environment will mean extremely difficult funding decisions. The federal government's tariffs and haphazard clawbacks of funding for critical programs have sown uncertainty in our economy. They threaten our ability to provide the resources Colorado kids and families, seniors, and rural communities depend on.

Colleagues, we are here to work for Colorado, for Coloradans. I know each of us are capable of doing so, because I have seen us do it before. So, I call on each of you to continue to, once again, govern courageously. My great hope is that each of us shows up here ready to work with one another to make life better for Coloradans.

We have, and will, work across the aisle to build a better Colorado – because the challenges facing our state demand nothing less.

People across our state are having to stretch their dollars further just to make ends meet. Rent and housing prices are leveling off but remain high. Groceries, insurance, utility bills, and everyday expenses are making monthly budgets a math problem that is increasingly more impossible to solve.

We have a role to play here. We won't sit idly by while Coloradans are hurting.

As we enter Colorado's 150th year of statehood, we will tackle the big issues head on. Our work this legislative session can and will improve outcomes for Coloradans in every corner of the state.

We will build an economy that rewards hardworking people and where every Coloradan has a fair chance to thrive.

This year we will work to build up affordable housing stock to increase opportunities for homeownership and lower housing prices for everyone. By stabilizing health care premium rates to keep more people on their plans, we can keep insurance premiums manageable for us all. We will continue to take on deceptive pricing practices and hold corporations accountable who pad their pockets at the expense of working families.

This year, we will also work to streamline workforce programs to help more Coloradans enter highly-skilled careers and fill in-demand positions – strengthening our economy to create more resiliency in the face of turbulent national tides.

We'll follow through on our commitments to reach our climate goals and invest in diverse energy sources to drive down utility costs and bolster an economy that's ready for our rapidly changing future.

We will also govern with the confidence guaranteed to us by our Constitution. Our rights and our freedoms are non-negotiable, and we will find the strength required to do our work knowing that we stand on the right side of history, and on the shoulders of leaders who fought for the freedoms and democracy we enjoy today.

Our work this year will lift us all.

Now, many of you know I am a minister. I won't preach too much this morning, but I do want to leave you with a few lines of scripture. Matthew 25:

For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.'

"Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?'

"The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

Let us work this year for our brothers and sisters who need our help the most. When we do, we will serve something bigger, greater than each of us in this room. When we do, we'll see Colorado's future in each and every constituent we serve.

So let us rise to the challenges facing our state and our collective future – as I know that we can. And let us fill Faith's shoes and be moved by the work. See each other as equals, and as humans.

Let us build a Colorado for everyone.

Our work in this building does not end on sine die or when we leave this building, but it does begin today.

Colleagues, thank you for your time this morning.

We have our work cut out for us. Let's do this.

Thank you.

President Coleman recognized Minority Leader Simpson to address the Senate.

The text of Minority Leader Simpson's remarks follow.

Opening Day Speech

Part I: Honoring Our History — Colorado at 150

Mister President, members of the Senate, distinguished guests, and the people of Colorado:

<Give Thanks Portion>
Thank President Coleman for his support
Recognize Senator Winter
Thank for the support of your wife of 42 years of marriage

"Marriage is a lot like politics. Two people run on bold platforms, make big compromises during the campaign, and assure everyone they're committed to reform. Once elected, they quickly discover there's a budget crisis, unexpected regulations and far more VETO power than anticipated. Working together across the aisle becomes essential, transparency is selective, and success is measured not by getting everything you want, but by keeping the coalition together long enough to govern."

As we open the 2026 legislative session, we do so at a remarkable crossroads in Colorado's story. This year marks Colorado's 150th anniversary of statehood, a milestone that invites reflection, gratitude, and resolve.

One hundred and fifty years ago, the First General Assembly of the State of Colorado convened with a Senate made up of just 26 members. They came from mining camps, farming communities, frontier towns, and vast rural counties. Among them was Alva Adams of Rio Grande County (although he represented the House), a man who would become one of the youngest Colorado governors at age 36 and whose legacy lives on today as the namesake of Adams County. That first Senate was smaller in number, but large in vision. They faced uncertainty, scarce resources, and a rapidly growing population, yet they believed Colorado was worth building.

That belief did not exist in isolation. It was fueled by enterprise, grit, and institutions that helped shape our state. This year also marks the 120th anniversary of the National Western Stock Show, an event that has long celebrated Colorado's agricultural roots and the ranchers, farmers, and producers who feed this state and much of the nation. For generations, the Stock Show has been a meeting place of tradition and innovation, where heritage is honored, and the future of agriculture is imagined.

We also recognize the 150th anniversary of the Colorado Mining Association, an organization that played a crucial role in shaping our state. Mining was not just an industry; it was a catalyst. It built towns, funded schools, laid railroads, and drew people from around the world who were willing to risk everything for opportunity. Mining helped turn a territory into a state and a rugged landscape into a thriving economy.

Behind these institutions were pioneers whose determination still inspires us today. One such pioneer was Otto Mears, often called the "Pathfinder of the San Juans." Mears understood that prosperity depended on connection, on roads, bridges, and access. When the original copper sheathing of this Capitol dome tarnished under Colorado's unforgiving weather, it was Otto Mears who convinced the Colorado Mining Association to donate 200 ounces of gold to re-cover the dome. That gold, still shining above us today, is more than decoration; it is a symbol of ingenuity, cooperation, and pride in this state.

Some of those stories are not just historical footnotes; they are lived experiences passed down through generations. <Insert anecdotal story of traversing one of the Otto Mears toll roads in Colorado> Those roads were challenging, yes, but they connected communities, opened markets, and proved that bold ideas paired with hard work can overcome even the most challenging terrain.

As we celebrate 150 years of statehood, we honor the men and women who shaped Colorado, beginning with the Indigenous tribes who first stewarded this land and continuing with the diverse generations of Coloradans who brought vision, courage, and a willingness to take risks in pursuit of something better.

Part II: New Horizons for Colorado

While history grounds us, it does not confine us. Colorado's story has always been one of new horizons, and today, new changes are coming with a new direction.

The people of Colorado are clear about what they need from us. They want a state that is affordable, safe, and full of opportunity, but are concerned about how divided we have become. They want a government that listens, that respects their work, and that understands the pressures facing families, small businesses, and communities, urban and rural alike.

Our responsibility this session is to chart a roadmap to a new horizon, one that reflects Colorado's pioneering spirit while responding to today's realities.

At the heart of that roadmap is a simple but urgent priority: lowering costs. Coloradans should not have to work harder just to stand still. Housing costs, energy prices, insurance premiums, and everyday necessities are stretching household budgets across this state. Lowering costs means making responsible decisions with taxpayer dollars. It means scrutinizing spending, reducing unnecessary bureaucracy, and recognizing that every policy choice we make has real consequences for real people. Government should be a partner in affordability, not an obstacle to it.

Lowering costs also requires us to restore balance between regulation and innovation, between ambition and accountability. Colorado thrives when individuals and businesses are free to create, invest, and grow without excessive barriers. When we get government out of the way, opportunity moves forward.

Just as important is opening new opportunities for every Coloradan. Opportunity is the reason pioneers crossed mountains, the reason industries took root, and the reason families continue to choose Colorado as their home. Opening opportunities today means ensuring access to good-paying jobs, quality education, and reliable infrastructure. It means supporting workforce training that aligns with the needs of modern industries. It means recognizing that opportunity looks different in Denver than it does in the Eastern Plains, the Western Slope, or the San Luis Valley, and crafting policies that respect those differences.

Opportunity also means fostering an economy where innovation is welcomed, where entrepreneurs are encouraged to take risks, and where success is rewarded, not punished. Colorado's future depends on our ability to attract investment, retain talent, and empower the next generation to build their lives here.

<Insert Comments regarding the President's direction for the party>

As Leader of the Republican Senate, I stand ready to work with anyone, regardless of party, who is serious about solutions. We will bring forward ideas rooted in freedom, accountability, and respect for the people we serve. We will advocate for policies that empower individuals rather than expand bureaucracy, that encourage work rather than dependency, and that trust communities to know what works best for them.

Just as Otto Mears built roads into places others thought unreachable, we must be willing to build pathways into Colorado's future, paths that may be challenging but that lead to growth, resilience, and shared prosperity.

Mister President and colleagues, the gold above us on this Capitol reminds us of where we have been. The work before us will determine where we are going. Let us honor 150 years of Colorado history not just with words, but with action, by choosing a new horizon worthy of the next generation.

Thank you, and may this session serve the people of Colorado well.

Senate reconvened.

Amend printed bill, strike everything below the enacting clause and substitute:

"SECTION 1. Short title. The short title of this act is the "Promoting Responsible End-of-Life Management of Electric Vehicle Batteries Act".

SECTION 2. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 25-17-1002, amend (2); and add (1.5) as follows:

25-17-1002. Legislative declaration.

(1.5) THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY FURTHER FINDS THAT:

(a) ELECTRIC VEHICLES ARE CRUCIAL TOOLS FOR REDUCING GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS, WHICH THE STATE IS STRIVING TO ELIMINATE BY 2050. ELECTRIC VEHICLES ARE ALSO VITAL TO REDUCING LOCAL AIR POLLUTION IN AREAS OF THE STATE, SUCH AS THE DENVER METRO AND NORTH FRONT RANGE AREAS, THAT THE FEDERAL ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY HAS DESIGNATED AS BEING IN NONATTAINMENT WITH A NATIONAL AMBIENT AIR QUALITY STANDARD. TO ACHIEVE EMISSION REDUCTIONS NEEDED TO MEET STATE-MANDATED CLIMATE GOALS AND FEDERALLY REQUIRED OZONE LEVELS, MANY MORE ELECTRIC VEHICLES WILL NEED TO BE DEPLOYED IN COLORADO.

(b) AS ELECTRIC VEHICLE SALES IN THE STATE CONTINUE TO GROW, SUBSTANTIALLY MORE ELECTRIC VEHICLES WILL BE RETIRED IN THE COMING YEARS, AND THEIR BATTERIES, KNOWN AS PROPULSION BATTERIES, WILL NEED RESPONSIBLE END-OF-LIFE MANAGEMENT;

(c) PROPULSION BATTERIES OFTEN RETAIN VALUE EVEN AFTER THEY CEASE TO POWER THE ORIGINAL VEHICLES INTO WHICH THEY WERE PLACED AND CAN BE REUSED, REMANUFACTURED, REPURPOSED, OR RECYCLED. EXTENDING THE USEFUL LIFESPAN OF PROPULSION BATTERIES IMPROVES THE SUSTAINABILITY PROFILE OF THE ELECTRIC VEHICLE INDUSTRY AND CREATES LOCAL ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES.

(d) MULTIPLE ANALYSES HAVE ESTABLISHED THAT EXPENSIVE AND HAZARDOUS RISKS RESULT FROM THE IMPROPER HANDLING AND DISPOSAL OF PROPULSION BATTERIES; AND

(e) UNWANTED PROPULSION BATTERIES THAT ARE STORED IMPROPERLY INSTEAD OF BEING SORTED FOR REUSE, REMANUFACTURING, REPURPOSING, OR ULTIMATE RECYCLING AND RECOVERY OF VALUABLE MATERIALS COULD POTENTIALLY REDUCE THE ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS OF A ROBUST CIRCULAR ECONOMY FOR PROPULSION BATTERIES WHILE ALSO INCREASING THE RISK OF BATTERY FIRES. A ROBUST EXTENDED PROVIDER RESPONSIBILITY POLICY IS NEEDED TO ENABLE A PROPULSION BATTERY CIRCULAR ECONOMY.

(2) The general assembly therefore declares that it is in the public interest of Colorado to:

(a) Require producers of batteries AND PROVIDERS OF PROPULSION BATTERIES to finance and implement a coordinated, state-approved system that increases access to the safe ~~disposal~~ AND RESPONSIBLE END-OF-LIFE MANAGEMENT of batteries in Colorado;

(b) REDUCE THE INHERENT RISK OF FIRE THAT CAN OCCUR WHEN PROPULSION BATTERIES ARE IMPROPERLY DISPOSED OF; AND

(c) ENCOURAGE THE REUSE, REMANUFACTURING, AND REPURPOSING OF PROPULSION BATTERIES AND THE ULTIMATE RECYCLING AND RECOVERY OF THE VALUABLE MATERIALS IN A PROPULSION BATTERY THAT CAN BE PUT BACK INTO THE SUPPLY CHAIN.

SECTION 3. In Colorado Revised Statutes, 25-17-1003, amend (8)(b)(VI), (28), (29), (30), and (31); and add (1.5), (2.5), (8.5), (10.5), (13.5), (19.5), (23.3), (23.5), (23.7), (23.9), (26.3), (26.5), (26.7), (26.8), (26.9), (32), (33), (34), (35), (36), (37), (38), (39), and (40) as follows:

THIS INCLUDES AN EXCLUSIVE LICENSEE WITH THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT TO USE THE BRAND OR TRADEMARK IN CONNECTION WITH THE DISTRIBUTION OR SALE OF PROPULSION BATTERIES.
